Join us October 12-15, 2017 at the Wyndham Indianapolis West hotel in Indianapolis for the 56th CKCSC, USA National Specialty!

There will be conformation shows, performance events, puppy and veteran sweeps, parades, AGM, health clinic, auctions, banquet, seminar and the Top 20 Gala.

Be sure to make submit your entries and make your hotel reservations!
I hope all of you are well and that your Cavaliers are in good health as the hot weather comes to an end in the south. The summer has ended and most of us have returned to our year-round routines.

For some of us this is not the case. This has been a very trying summer for our Cavalier friends in Texas, Louisiana and Florida. Hurricane season is a challenge for humans and even more difficult for our canine companions. I have personally seen the care and generosity of the Cavaliers of the South first hand as we waited for Irma to make landfall in the southern United States. Our Cavalier friends in Louisiana, Alabama and Georgia all offered up their homes to take in our Florida families and pets as the storm threatened. It makes me proud to be member of the Club. Now, I pray that everyone can start to regain some sense of normalcy.

Hopefully, with all this now behind us, we will look to the fall and all the COS has to offer its members. In November, we will join the Cavaliers of the Northeast to host a show in York, Pennsylvania. Howard and Beth Bales have graciously offered to act as show chairs again this year. Thank you both.

In December, we will have our first show ever in Asheville NC. We have new chairs for this show, Chair Kristin Jacks and Co -chairs, Debi Mikulak and Deb Dye all from Florida. They are doing a great job and have a very special show weekend planned for you with excellent judges and on Friday night a world famous Candlelight Tour of the Biltmore Estate. Kristin has written an article for this newsletter about this wonderful show and event. Be sure and read it for all the most up to date information.

The March 2018 show will return to Williamsburg, VA for 2018 and we will have a new show chair for this event. Helen Norton has agreed to take over the reins of this show. She is already busy getting things organized. This show will also host the CKCSC, USA Puppy of The Year event. Williamsburg is always a favorite tourist destination with great restaurants and plenty of historic places to visit after the show. We all need to thank Caryna for all the years she ran this show and also for agreeing to help Helen continue to make a success.

The May 2018 show and COS AGM will return to Atlanta, with a new hotel and a new date. The COS members voted at the AGM to move the show off Mother’s Day to the following weekend. The change will allow people to spend this important weekend with their families. Paula Ayers has worked a miracle and contracted with the Doubletree by Hilton Perimeter Mall. We lost our last hotel when it was sold to Delta to build a new runway. Thank you, Paula and Brenda, for chairing this show each year and making it so special for all who attend.

I hope this gives you all a good idea of what we have planned through the AGM in May, and I encourage you all visit the events page to get more information on the judges, venues and activities. Please mark your calendars and plan to join your friends for all the fun.

Dr. Randi Rosvoll “Heart of the South” Nominations

It is that time of the year again to nominate a COS member for the “Heart of the South” award. This award was created in 2000 to honor members who volunteer tirelessly behind the scenes and whose contributions are invaluable to the success of the club. Randi Rosvoll was honored as the first recipient and the award was renamed “The Randi Rosvoll Heart of the South Award”.

Howard Bales was the second recipient of the award for his wonderful work in support of our shows.

In May 2010, Cindy Torgersen was awarded the Heart of the South for her work on club functions and her work with the national Cavalier Rescue USA organization.

In May 2012, Beth Arenburg was awarded the Heart of the South for all the work she has done with the COS health clinics.

In May 2015, Nancy Maddox was awarded the Heart of the South for her work on shows and her generosity with donating pieces of her wonderful artwork to the Club for prizes and donations.

Paula Ayers was the 2016 recipient of this prestigious award for all the time, effort and support she has given to both the National and COS clubs over the years.

In May of 2017 Beth Bales was awarded this very special award for the many years and countless hours she has given to the COS and the National Club.

To be nominated for the award the nominee must be a member of COS for a minimum of 7 years.

Please send your nominations (50 words or less as to why you are nominating this person) to:

SHANNON TAYLOR
Club Secretary
barrelandboardesign@gmail.com

The deadline for submitting nominations is FEBRUARY 1, 2018. The COS Board will re-view all nominations and determine the final choice.

The award will be given in years where the Board feels the award is deemed appropriate and announced at the May 2018 AGM Meeting.

Greetings from your December COS Specialty show chair, Kristin Jacks.

Firstly, a big thank you goes to Lisa Carnes for the wonderful art that she has created for our show. We have some exciting events planned for this show. As always you can get the latest information and details on the National website under the events page. On Friday evening, we have an incredible and unique opportunity to tour one of the largest privately-owned homes in the United States, the Biltmore Estate. Coordinating a tour for our group has been a monumental task; however, Debi Mikulak was able to get a discounted rate from an average price of $100 to $75 per person during this time of year. The website information regarding the Biltmore Estate candlelight Christmas tour is http://www.biltmore.com/events/candlelight-christmas-evenings-1. Detailed information can also be found under the events page on the National website. Some tempting tidbits of information are the self-guided tour scheduled for Friday 8 December with an option to tour the village and estate grounds either earlier on Friday or Saturday. The candlelight tour includes 55 Christmas trees and live performances of Christmas music and many other festive experiences.

We are also coordinating with the University of North Carolina and/or Duke University in hopes of having a health seminar on Saturday; however, the plans are still in the works. Please keep checking with the events page for updates on this particular event.

On a much more expeditious note I hope to appeal to your desire to attend a Cavalier King Charles Spaniels Club show. We all love the breed and being around other cavalier owners. I promise you will get something out of attending the show. First and foremost, we gather together as guardians of this wonderful breed, and a bonus is the wonderful Crowne Plaza Resort and Spa in Asheville, North Carolina. As stated above, we are working very hard to make this a successful show; therefore, the next component is exhibitors and observers’ alike attending and supporting the show.

In trying to build on the above we need support in the following areas:

1. Your attendance and fellowship
2. Donations, as it always boils down to, is a monetary or time donation such as:
   - Class sponsorships
   - Donations for our silent auction
   - Volunteering in areas such as cleanup or hospitality, stewarding

Please don’t let the unknown scare you away from a great opportunity to get to know your fellow cavalier lovers and guardians of this great breed.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at:
(850) 258-7355 or krisnonnie@gmail.com
Thank you for time,
Kristin Jacks
COS Show Chair December 2017 Winter Specialty
This is a very EARLY request, but we need our member’s help and support for our 2018 MAY COS Specialty Auctions. The live and silent auctions we hold at the May show are one of our club’s major fundraisers. It has become increasingly difficult to solicit donated items from vendors and businesses and we have been relying on our club member’s donations for the past two years. For 2018, we have literally “no stash” left for our silent auction.

For 2018, I would like to have a group of baskets to bid on for both the live and silent auction. To make them worth bidding on, they have to be at least $40-$50 value or more. If you would be willing to donate a basket, it would be greatly appreciated. Right now, the baskets that I am thinking of having are:

- Dog Bed filled with toys, blanket, treats
- New Puppy basket (anything a new puppy would need)
- Grooming basket (shampoos, brushes, combs, conditioner, towels, etc)
- Whine Basket (a basket of a couple bottles of wine, glasses, crackers, opener)
- Movie Time basket (thinking of a DVD that is dog related—Maybe “Best in Show”, popcorn, candy, popcorn bowls, couple bottles of soda, etc)
- I’m a show dog basket (show lead, drying coat, bait, bait bag, brush, grooming spray, water bottle, poop bags, etc)
- Travel Basket (items that you can use when traveling with your dog)
- Whelping Basket (items that you may need for the newborn litter)
- Any basket you can think of! (OR any item you can donate!)

If you have something that you feel would be great for our LIVE auction or you know of a vendor who can donate an item or service for our live auction, please let me know. If anyone is willing to donate a dryer for the auction it would be appreciated!

Please feel free to email me (Sharon Utych) at utych@earthlink.net if you can help out with donations! We need YOUR help!

Judge: Ricky Perkins (Mimric, TN, USA)

What an honor to be invited to judge the Atlanta show for my regional club. My thanks to the COS leadership for the invitation. It was a pleasure to judge the quality dog entries and my winner I’m sure will move on to higher honors as he matures. Special thanks to Carolyn Peterson, my Ring Steward, for being right on top of everything. Thanks also to the show chairs, as they always put on a great event in Atlanta!

Jr Puppy Dog (3):
1. Brookhaven I’m A Believer (Ayers/Martz): Extremely promising young 7 months old blen, with pretty full plush head piece, showing off lovely eyes and expression. Outline very balanced and proportioned while standing, with nicely shaped neck and level topline. Nice bone. Good showing for his debut, and with confidence in the ring he should have a few more blue ribbons in his future. 2. Silvermae Huckleberry Finn At Turdorose (Lazar/Mixon): Larger blen boy of 8 months who carried a level topline on the move, and while not a bold mover, he presented himself well. Head more moderate at this age and changing I’m sure. Nice dark and round eyes. 3. Darane Happy Song (Markijohn/Kates): B/T 8 month old who has a good overall shape, better angulation in front than rear. Level topline while standing. Movement not quite as good as those above. Head moderate and pleasing at this time. Good tan markings. Coat looks promising.

Sr Puppy Dog (2):
1. Chadwick Telltale Author (Eckersley): Really nice blen puppy in so many ways. Not much not to like on this striking boy. Came in the ring with outstanding presence and movement. Lovely overall shape, dead-level topline standing and on the move, easy flowing movement displaying his good front and strong rear. Excellent bone on this boy, chunky as they should be. His head is impressive and expressive. Nice earset frames his plush head, showing flat skull. Eyes are big, round and dark -- beautiful. Muzzle could be a tad short but the fullness of muzzle and excellent cushioning under the eyes makes this head very attractive. He captured my attention in the class, and repeated it in the challenges. Very happy to award him Best Puppy in Sweepstakes, Best Puppy Dog. Glad to see him also have an excellent weekend. 2. Almeara I Believe (Parente): A nice boy who was unlucky to meet 1 on this night. Huge eyes with dark rims and nice pigment with deep chestnut color. Good length of neck flowing into well angulated shoulders.

Graduate Puppy Dog (3):
1. Harana Huey Lewis (Gentil): This ruby boy with good ruby color has a really nice overall shape. Excellent substance/bone. Ideal for proportions with good front and rear. Standing and on the move he keeps his great shape together, level topline, and his construction allows him to flow very fluidly around the ring. Head is pleasing, good eyes, good earset. Stop is deeper than my liking. 2. Georzuli Triple Crown (Maryscott Glasgow): 13-month old tri-color with a very lovely coat, shiny black against pearly white. A cleanly marked moderate head piece that displayed his sweet disposition. Outline nice, balanced, length from point of chest to point of hip correct. Tad high in rear on this day. Movement good coming and going. 3. Canyoncrest To The Leader Of The Band (DuRoss): 13-month old tri-color who also had a pretty coat. Pleasing head with good round eyes, set off by nicely shaped ears framing his face. Nice neck. Not quite the substance and movement of those above.
Jr Puppy Bitch (6):
1. Brookhaven Spend A Penny (Paula/Martz): 8-month blen girl with a very sweet head with pretty expression. Nice round eyes, on a pretty head not overdone, just classic. Good length of neck connects to overall good shape, balanced, good topline although a tad up hill today. Straight silky coat helps complete a pretty picture. Moved ok, should improve with age and confidence. Promising youngster.

Sr Puppy Bitch (5): (very different types in this class of 3) -
1. Tudorose Legend Of The Primrose Princess (Mixon/Mixon): 11-month old tri-color with a kind, pleasing head, cleanly marked and with nice eyes. Pearly white coat appears crisp against satin black. Outline is balanced with matching front and back angles. Topline excellent. This girl is slightly larger at this time, and while her shape and topline are excellent, as well as good bone, she appears to be a bit stretchier today. Maturity will change that as her structural underpinnings are there.
3. Parlett Pinky Promise (Brittani and Benjamin Williams): 11-month old blen with sweet head still developing. Nice earset frames face, setting off nice round eyes. Liked her petite shape, short and cobby, and look nice while standing. Disappoints a bit on the move. Coat is well-broken, straight and of promising finish.

Graduate Puppy Bitch (4):
1. Bonitos Companeros Medusa (Emberton/Magera): 16-month old blen bitch of very high quality. Her head is exquisite, featuring dark, round eyes completing the perfect triangle with the nose. Her softness delivers the sweet expression desired by all, and her nose pigment is black, matching her black eye rims. Beautiful head. Her shape is ideal to the standard (1 to 1 1/2). Good front and uses it on the move stepping out strong. Front is better than rear. Excellent deep red color on this blen. All-in-all this girl overall makes a beautiful package and I’m happy to award her Best Puppy Bitch in Sweeps.
2. Silvermae Laser Light (Lazar/Mixon): 14-month old blen with a classic and correct head. Another with pretty eyes. Taller, not the proportions of 1, or quite the same fluid movement. Good straight coat of good texture. Unlucky to meet 1 today.
Mark your calendars for November 9-12, 2017 as our next Specialty will be the CNE/COS Autumn Specialty Shows in York PA.

Make sure you have made your hotel reservations (see the website for all the information). This hotel is a great venue and always a popular show to attend! Our COS judge will be AKC judge Jacqueline Stacey (Sunday).

May 2018 COS Annual Specialty—Atlanta GA

Hot of the Press! As you may be aware, our May COS Specialty was held at the Sheraton Airport for the 1st time in 2017. While a great venue, we found out it was sold and scheduled to be demolished to make another runway for the Atlanta airport!

That led us back to the drawing board! It was very difficult to find hotels to accommodate us in 2018, yet Paula Ayers found one!

Our May show will now be held on May 18-20, 2018 (yes, we also received approval to officially move the specialty to the weekend AFTER Mother’s Day) at the Doubletree by Hilton Atlanta Perimeter (Dunwoody). This is great location, near shopping and restaurants, shuttle service to MARTA, an onsite restaurant, pool and more!
